Subject: National Range Program Support at Johnston Island (U)

The uncertain nature of future activities involving elements of this command at Johnston Island make any predictions of range requirements difficult. Normally we plan for one Type one launch per year. However, certain budget actions directed by Hq USAF may have a direct bearing on future ADC requirements involving Johnston Island. R&D efforts do not appear to go beyond September, 1970, with the completion of the

"b1"

At present the only existing requirement is the one Combat Evaluation Launch per year. GP-4
